

SHIVALI BHAMMER

The Devotional Voice,

An internationally renowned singer and speaker, Shivali shares her take on the Eastern philosophy of consciousness through her music, inspiring people to feel more connected with themselves. Her global performances have been witnessed by over 1 million individuals across more than 500 live events, including performing at the House of Lords, hosting the New York Indian Film Festival and speaking at Harvard Business School. Shivali is also an Investment Banker covering U.S. Private Equity firms at Raymond James Investment Bank.

Shivali was first signed with Sony Music India at the age of 22, releasing her first sell out album The Bhajan Project. She followed up in 2012 with her second album Urban Temple. Both of those records reached number one on the iTunes World Chart, amassing over 60 million streams and downloads.

At just 23 Shivali was nominated for two Global Indian Music Awards, for best debut and best fusion album.

In recognition of the impact of her first album in February 2023 Shivali released The Bhajan Project 2. It has been positively received by critics around the world, delighted her loyal fan base and enraptured new listeners. The Bhajan Project 2, and Shivali herself, have been covered by the BBC, Rolling Stone, Music Unplugged, IndiaWest Journal and more.

As well as inspiring others through her singing and writing, Shivali embraces motivational speaking, and has delivered several keynotes to global gatherings, including the International Women's Day Conference in New York, the Spiritual Directors Conference in St Louis and the Women's Ambassadors Forum. She was a guest speaker at the 'Women of India: Leading in a Time of Crisis' conference in 2020 and addresses corporate firms such as Brunswick Group.

Since 2021 Shivali has collaborated with the leading meditation app in India called Thinkright.me, and has devised and presented a meditation programme called 'The Power Of Visualisation: A 7-Day Journey.' Her life story forms a chapter in the book 'Voices from Gujarat', a set of empowering stories about 21 British Indian Women.

Shivali is a regular on television and radio including BBC Radio 2, BBC5Live and Talk TV, where she provides her opinion on philosophy and British Asian culture.

Shivali holds a BA in Economics & Philosophy from the University of Nottingham, a PLDA (Alternate EMBA) from Harvard Business School and a Diploma in classical Indian dance Kathak from the Bhartiya Vidya Bhavan. She lives between London and New York City.

www.shivali.co.uk

IG: @shivalibhammer