About Dr. Neva

Dr. Neva Helena Alexander is the Founder & International Women's Business Strategist behind Nevalliance, a certified MWBE professional development company with a business development edge, dedicated to educating, empowering, and engaging women entrepreneurs through global experiences and intentional growth strategies. At Nevalliance, Dr. Neva helps women elevate their businesses through holistic development—personal, professional, and entrepreneurial. The company's offerings include strategic consulting, international retreats, curated experiences, and the exclusive Inner Circle membership program, all designed to increase visibility, expand networks, and support sustainable business growth.

Her work is rooted in transformation, strategy, and access, creating spaces where women can connect, grow, and thrive on a global scale. While women are at the core of her mission, Dr. Neva proudly welcomes men who align with Nevalliance's values.

A renowned educator, speaker, and author, Dr. Neva is known for delivering invaluable insights on leadership, startup strategies, and women's empowerment. Since 2017, she has spearheaded the International Women's Conference at Hofstra University and led initiatives that amplify underrepresented voices in business.

Dr. Neva continues to lead with purpose and passion, inspiring positive change and helping women entrepreneurs build lasting, impactful legacies.
